

Kununua Fenicha

Someni tangazo hili linalotoka katika gazeti:

Maneno

1. You already know redio and televishani (or televisheni), which come from English. The words mafriji and fenicha also come from English. What do you think they mean?
2. Do you remember what polepole means? Do you know a proverb which has this word in it?
3. You already know the verb kulipa. Malipo is a plural noun derived from this verb. What do you think this noun means in English?
4. If I tell you that the noun mpango means "plan", can you now tell me what the expression mipango ya malipo ya polepole means?

Zoezi

Work in pairs. For each pair, one person is a potential customer who has come to an African Retail Traders store while the other person is the salesman. Have a conversation discussing the following points:

- what the customer wants to buy
- what the item costs
- how the customer will pay for the item